

Food Legislation and Labelling

Updated: 12 May 2011

Two days $935 inc GST

Course Outline

This course is aimed at managers who are responsible for meeting regulatory requirements and for auditors, to gain knowledge of food regulations in Australia. All Food Safety Quality Assurance Standards require that legislation must be met. Do you know the legislation?

Course Content

The course will cover:

- What the Food Industry relevant Standards say?
- Who is responsible for enforcement of this legislation in your State?
- The Food Standards Code - Chapters 1-4, including a comprehensive coverage of the labelling laws, processing requirements, product category requirements and Food Safety Standard requirements.
- The Trade Practices Act - where it applies to food.
- Other relevant Standards such as Weights and Measures.

This course updates and extends AFS's previous 'Labelling Laws' course to provide full coverage of all relevant food legislation.

What's Included with the course fee

Course notes, Certificate of Attendance, lunch, morning and afternoon refreshments. All you need to bring is a pen.
